SCHEDULE OF NOTES

1. The instrument is for the purposes of noting the land register that an annuity or sum of money is satisfied and discharged.
2. The instrument must be accompanied by proof of the death of the annuitant or the occurrence of the event or circumstance on which the annuity or sum of money secured ceases to be payable in accordance with the mortgage and proof that all arrears of the annuity or money have been paid, satisfied or discharged.
3. On the entry being made in the land register, a lot comprised in the mortgage ceases to be subject to or liable for the annuity or sum of money.
4. If there is insufficient space in any panel use the space above or an annexure sheet (Form 95).
5. Insert mortgage number and state whether total or part of the mortgage is being satisfied and discharged.
6. Volume and Folio references must be given together with complete parcel description. If the certificate as to title has been issued it must be produced.
7. Insert full name. Address is not required.
8. Persons who may witness this document are a Commissioner for Oaths, a member of the Legislative Assembly, a legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Profession Act 2006, a person holding office under the Supreme Court Act 1979, the Justices of the Peace Act 1991, the Local Court Act 2015 or the Registration Act 1927, a member of the Police Force, a person licensed as a conveyancing agent or real estate agent under the Agents Licensing Act 1979, a Notary Public and any other person approved by the Registrar-General.

A witness to an instrument executed by an individual must first:

- take reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is the person entitled to sign the instrument;
- have the individual execute the document in the presence of the witness;
- not be a party to the instrument; and
- if witnessing more than one signature, clearly state that he/she has witnessed more than one signature. (ie I have witnessed the two signatures appearing above).

After signing, witnesses must legibly write, type or stamp their names and contact address or telephone number below their signature.

For a corporation, an instrument must be executed in a way permitted by law or sealed with the corporation's seal in accordance with the Law of Property Act 2000, Section 48.

For witnessing of instruments executed outside the Northern Territory refer to Schedule 1 of the Land Title Act 2000 and the Registrar-General's Direction.

PRIVACY STATEMENT – LAND REGISTER FORMS

The Registrar-General's Office is authorised by the Land Title Act 2000 to collect the information on this form for the establishment and maintenance of the Land Register, which is made available for search by any person, anywhere, including through the Internet, upon payment of a fee. The information is regularly provided to other NT Government agencies, the Australian Valuation Office, local governments, the Australian Bureau of Statistics, the Australian Taxation Office or other Commonwealth Agencies as required or authorised by law, and some private sector organisations for conveyancing, local government, valuation, statistical, administrative and other purposes.
