

Automatic mutual recognition notification

By using this form, you are notifying of your intent to work in the Northern Territory under Part 3A of the Mutual Recognition Act 1992.

Individuals who hold a valid and current occupational registration or licence in another state or territory are able to apply for automatic mutual recognition (AMR) in the Northern Territory (NT) without needing to pay additional fees or apply for a separate registration.

While working in the NT, you are required to comply with all relevant NT legislation, including only working within the scope of work that you are authorised to do so under your interstate licence or registration.

All fields are mandatory, please read through the form carefully. If you intend to change your primary place of residence to the NT, you are required to apply for the relevant licence in the NT. Fees may apply.

Please note, companies cannot apply for AMR.

Current licence details

You MUST maintain a current equivalent interstate licence at all times in order to maintain automatic mutual recognition. If your interstate licence expires, you no longer have automatic mutual recognition. Specify below all states or territories for which a substantive licence for the equivalent occupation(s) is sought.

Note: If you renew your equivalent interstate licence, to ensure substantive recognition continues, please supply Occupational Licensing with a copy of the renewed equivalent interstate licence.
