HEADING

(NOTE 3)

SCHEDULE OF NOTES

1. If there is insufficient space to accommodate the required information; in a panel on the parent instrument insert the words “See Annexure” and enter all the information on the annexure sheet under the appropriate heading.
2. If the instrument is lodged in duplicate (or triplicate) an annexure sheet must be attached to each. The annexure attached to the original must be typed or completed in ink or biro, that attached to the duplicate (or triplicate) may be a copy of the original. Alterations to information entered on the form should be crossed out (not erased or obliterated by painting over) and initialled by the parties.
3. Multiple annexures may appear on the same annexure sheet but each must be correctly headed.

PRIVACY STATEMENT – LAND REGISTER FORMS

The Registrar-General’s Office is authorised by the Land Title Act 2000 to collect the information on this form for the establishment and maintenance of the Land Register, which is made available for search by any person, anywhere, including through the Internet, upon payment of a fee. The information is regularly provided to other NT Government agencies, the Australian Valuation Office, local governments, the Australian Bureau of Statistics, the Australian Taxation Office or other Commonwealth Agencies as required or authorised by law, and some private sector organisations for conveyancing, local government, valuation, statistical, administrative and other purposes. The NT Government also uses the information to prepare and sell or licence property sales reports to commercial organisations concerned with the development, sale or marketing of property.

Failure to provide the information in full or in part may prevent your application or transaction being completed.

Your personal information provided on this form can be subsequently accessed by you on request. If you have any queries please contact the Deputy Registrar-General on 8999 5318.
