SCHEDULE OF NOTES

1. This application may be lodged as an original only and must be typed or completed in ink or biro. All signatures must be in ink or biro. Alterations to information entered on the form should be crossed out (not erased or obliterated by painting over) and initialled by the parties.
2. This form of request to record transmission by bankruptcy is used to register a transmission of an interest in a lot under a law about bankruptcy.
3. If there is insufficient space in any panel use the space above or an annexure sheet (Form 95).
4. Volume and Folio references must be given together with complete parcel description. If the certificate as to title has been issued and is in the possession or control of the applicant it must be produced.
5. Insert details of the estate and interest and include the instrument number.
6. Insert full name. This should coincide with the name of the person who is stated in the evidence documents. Insert address for the service of notices. The address can be a postal address. If there is more than one applicant additional addresses may be specified. In that case the form should be adapted so that it is clear to whom each address relates.
7. The appropriate original deed of assignment and copies thereof must be produced for sighting. The original will be returned at lodgement with the photocopy being retained by the LTO.
8. The document/s deposited in support of the request must be identified here (if applicable).
9. Persons who may witness this document are a Commissioner for Oaths, a member of the Legislative Assembly, a legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Profession Act 2006, a person holding office under the Supreme Court Act 1979, the Justices of the Peace Act 1991, the Local Court Act 2015 or the Registration Act 1927, a member of the Police Force, a person licensed as a conveyancing agent or real estate agent under the Agents Licensing Act 1979, a Notary Public and any other person approved by the Registrar-General.

A witness to an instrument executed by an individual must first:

- take reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is the person entitled to sign the instrument;
- have the individual execute the document in the presence of the witness;
- not be a party to the instrument; and
- if witnessing more than one signature, clearly state that he/she has witnessed more than one signature. (ie I have witnessed the two signatures appearing above).

After signing, witnesses must legibly write, type or stamp their names and contact address or telephone number below their signature.

For a corporation, an instrument must be executed in a way permitted by law or sealed with the corporation's seal in accordance with the Law of Property Act 2000, Section 48.

For witnessing of instruments executed outside the Northern Territory refer to Schedule 1 of the Land Title Act 2000 and the Registrar-General's Direction

PRIVACY STATEMENT – LAND REGISTER FORMS

The Registrar-General's Office is authorised by the Land Title Act 2000 to collect the information on this form for the establishment and maintenance of the Land Register, which is made available for search by any person, anywhere, including through the Internet, upon payment of a fee. The information is regularly provided to other NT Government agencies, the Australian Valuation Office, local governments, the Australian Bureau of Statistics, the Australian Taxation Office or other Commonwealth Agencies as required or authorised by law, and some private sector organisations for conveyancing, local government, valuation, statistical, administrative and other purposes. The NT Government also uses the information to prepare and sell or licence property sales reports to commercial organisations concerned with the development, sale or marketing of property.

Failure to provide the information in full or in part may prevent your application or transaction being completed.

Your personal information provided on this form can be subsequently accessed by you on request. If you have any queries please contact the Deputy Registrar-General on 8999 5318.
