

BERRIMAH WEIGHBRIDGE

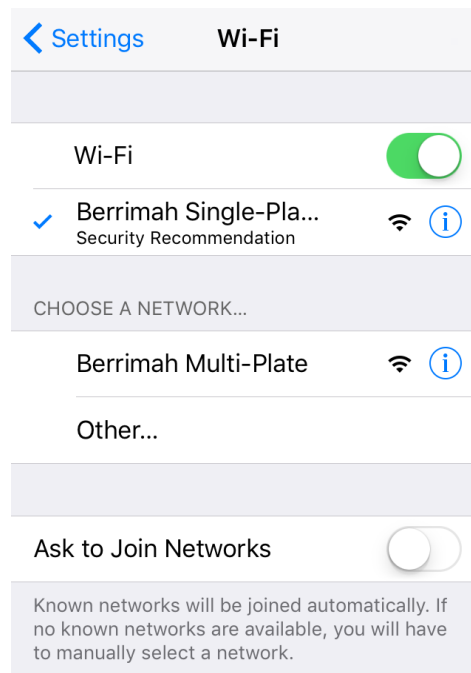

ELECTRONIC TICKETING SYSTEM - “HOW TO USE” GUIDE

Ver. 1.0 – December 2017

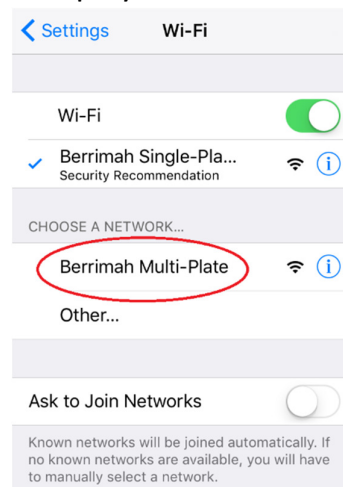

Note: The following pictures are shown from an iOS system (Apple iPhone) and will differ from using an Android mobile device (eg. Samsung mobile phone) or a Windows device. However, the service should work on Android and Windows devices as well as Apple ones.

Multi-Plate:

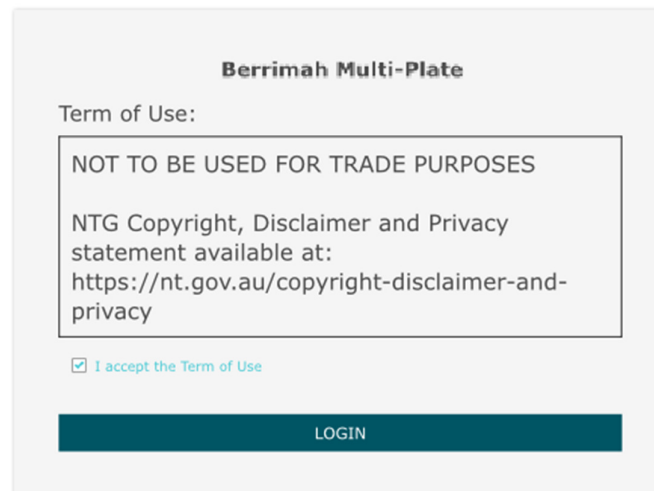

1. Go to the Wi-Fi settings on your device and search for available Wi-Fi connections.

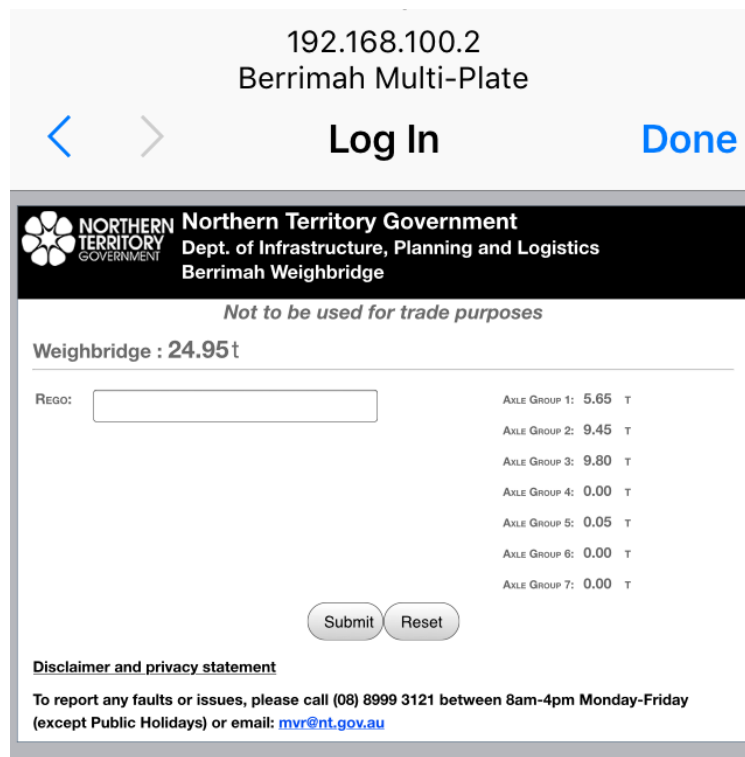

2. When the Wi-Fi options are displayed, select “Berrimah Multi-Plate”.

- When the “Berrimah Multi-Plate” Wi-Fi is selected, a login pop-up message will appear. Press “LOGIN”.

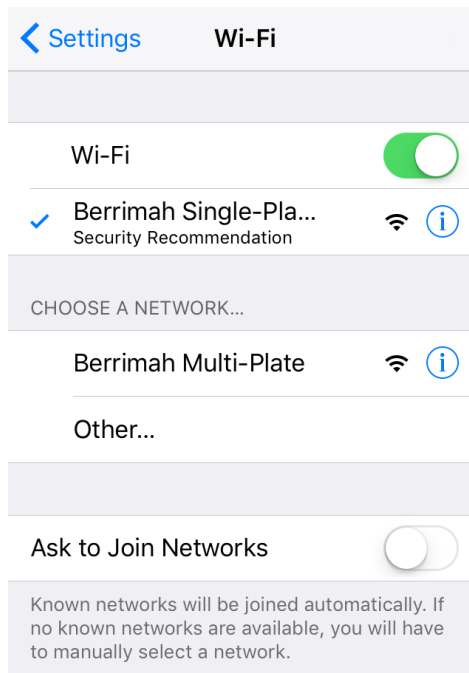

- Once logged in, the weigh page for the multi-plate will appear.

5. Enter REGO plate in the space provided and press “Submit”. Weights will appear on right hand side.
6. Once “Submit” has been pressed, the weigh docket will be generated and opened in a PDF format. This can be screenshot, saved to your device or emailed.
7. Press “Reset” once weighing has been completed.

Single-Plate:

1. Go to the Wi-Fi settings on your device and search for available Wi-Fi connections.

2. When the Wi-Fi options are displayed, select “Berrimah Single-Plate”.

- When the “Berrimah Single-Plate” Wi-Fi is selected, a login pop-up message will appear. Press “LOGIN”.

A login form titled "Berrimah Single-Plate". It contains a "Term of Use:" section with a text box containing the following text: "NOT TO BE USED FOR TRADE PURPOSES", "NTG Copyright, Disclaimer and Privacy statement available at:", and "https://nt.gov.au/copyright-disclaimer-and-privacy". Below the text box is a checkbox labeled "I accept the Term of Use" which is checked. At the bottom of the form is a dark teal button labeled "LOGIN".

- Once logged in, the weigh page for the single-plate will appear.

A screenshot of the Berrimah Weighbridge interface. At the top, the IP address "192.168.100.6" and a refresh icon are visible. Below this is a header with the Northern Territory Government logo and text: "Northern Territory Government", "Dept. of Infrastructure, Planning and Logistics", and "Berrimah Weighbridge". A warning message reads "Not to be used for trade purposes". The main section displays "Weighbridge : 0.05". There is a "REGO:" input field and an "AXLE WEIGHTS" input area. At the bottom, there are "Start" and "Reset" buttons. A footer section contains a "Disclaimer and privacy statement" and contact information: "To report any faults or issues, please call (08) 8999 3121 between 8am-4pm Monday-Friday (except Public Holidays) or email: mvr@nt.gov.au".

5. Enter REGO plate in the space provided and press “Start”. Weights will appear on right hand side.
