Commercial Passenger (Road) Transport Act 1991

Determination of Maximum Fares and Charges for Taxis

I, Eva Dina Lawler, Minister for Infrastructure, Planning and Logistics, under section 26(1) of the Commercial Passenger (Road) Transport Act 1991, determine that the maximum fares and charges that may be charged:

- (a) during the period for which the COVID-19 public health emergency is declared under section 48 of the Public and Environmental Health Act 2011, and for 6 months after that declaration expires or is revoked; and
- (b) in the circumstances where a passenger who is suspected of having COVID-19 or who may have been exposed to the COVID-19 virus, is being carried in a taxi at the expense of the Northern Territory of Australia under the terms of an agreement between the Northern Territory of Australia and the operator of the taxi, are the amounts set out in the relevant agreement.

While this determination remains in force, the previous determination dated 23 January 2018 and published in Gazette No. S4 on 30 January 2018 does not apply to the hire or use of a taxi in the circumstances outlined in paragraph (b) of this determination.
