

Application for the commemorative certificate of delivery

(Child is below 20 weeks or 400 grams gestation)

The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act (NT) does not provide for the registration of a delivery prior to 20 weeks gestation and under 400 grams body mass. In such cases, the Office of Births, Deaths and Marriages will issue a Commemorative Certificate to the parents on application. The certificate should not be used for official purposes.

*The letter/statement from the Medical Practitioner confirming the details of the delivery must be presented with your application.
