Conditions of Use

- All number plates remain the property of the Registrar of Motor Vehicles. You are paying a fee for the “Right To Display” particular or personalised number plates only, and not for the purchase of the number plates.
- All plates ordered must be affixed to a current NT registered vehicle within 12 months of notification that the plates are available for collection. This period may be extended for a further 12 months by applying to the Registrar prior to the expiry date. If the extension is approved an administrative fee will be payable.
- If the registration of the vehicle is allowed to lapse, you will retain the right to display the plate for 12 months. This period may be extended for a further 12 months by applying to the Registrar prior to the expiry date. If the extension is approved an administrative fee will be payable.
- All plate applications are accepted subject to approval of the Registrar of Motor Vehicles. Obscene, blasphemous, racially offensive, sexually explicit, violent or discriminatory plate combinations will not be approved.
- The reasons a customer gives for wanting a certain plate are completely irrelevant as to whether or not the plate is acceptable. The plate must stand on its own as being acceptable to the community.
- If complaints are received regarding a personalised number plate then the Registrar may choose to withdraw the plate from circulation and offer the owner an alternative number or a refund of their personalised plate fee.
- Where an application for a specific sequence has been rejected, the applicant may either apply for a refund of fee or submit an alternative choice.
