Information
This Self-Exclusion Notice is an important document. You should make sure you have read and understood it before filling it out. You should consider whether you need independent legal advice on its contents. The information provided below is a brief outline of the self-exclusion process and the rights and responsibilities of parties involved in self-exclusion. In each instance where a Licensee is mentioned, the same information applies to a permit holder. Further information and assistance in relation to the self-exclusion process may be obtained from:  Policy Officer: (08) 8999 1800  Licensing, Regulation and Alcohol Strategy, Department of Business

Self-exclusion notice
Process A person seeking self-exclusion from a venue should contact the Licensee of the venue to discuss their wish to be self-excluded. If after considering the information provided by the Licensee a person wishes to be self-excluded they should complete a Self-Exclusion Notice. Self-exclusion is available for a minimum period of three (3) months, but may be for such longer period as requested. Self-exclusion takes effect three (3) days after the Self-Exclusion Notice is signed by the Licensee. The three day period is called the “cooling off” period and gives the applicant time to think about the decision and change their mind if they wish. A Self-Exclusion Notice lodged with the Licensee of the venue cannot be reversed after the end of “cooling off” period. Self-Exclusion Notices must be completed in full and may be lodged in person or by post. If you wish to be self-excluded from more than one venue, a separate notice must be completed and provided to the Licensee of each venue.
Rights and Responsibilities of the Excluded Person <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A self-excluded person must not try to enter any part of a venue they are excluded from during the period of self-exclusion.</li> <li>• Should a self-excluded person enter any part of the venue from which he or she is self-excluded, that person must advise the Licensee’s staff immediately when the person enters the self-exclusion area.</li> <li>• A self-excluded person accepts that if contrary to a Self-Exclusion Notice they gamble in an area they are excluded from they do so at their own risk and they will not make any claim for any losses they may suffer.</li> </ul>
Rights and Responsibilities of the Licensee of the Venue <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Licensee must provide information about the assistance available to a person wishing to self-exclude.</li> <li>• The Licensee must remove a self-excluded person’s name from player loyalty mailing lists promoting gaming activities during a period of self-exclusion.</li> <li>• If a self-excluded person is discovered in, or attempting to enter, an area they are excluded from, the Licensee will take reasonable steps to prevent the self-excluded person’s further participation in the gambling activities therein including prohibiting their entry or continued presence in the area.</li> </ul>
