SCHEDULE OF NOTES

1. If the Registrar-General has created a single indefeasible title for 2 or more lots, the Registrar-General may create separate indefeasible titles for any of the lots by cancelling the single set of particulars for the lots in the land register including separate particulars for the lots. (Internal use only: The MT code is for ownership separate title issue only and the ST code is for more than ownership).
2. The Registrar-General may only create single titles if there is an approval or exemption under the Planning Act 1999 that permits each lot to exist separately from any other lot.
3. This form may be lodged as an original only and must be typed or completed in biro. Alterations to information entered on the form should be crossed out (not erased or obliterated by painting over) and initialled by the parties.
4. If there is insufficient space in any panel use the space above or an annexure sheet (Form 95).
5. Volume and Folio references must be given together with complete parcel description. If a certificate as to title has been issued it must be produced.
6. Insert applicant's name.
7. Details of application.
8. Persons who may witness this document are a Commissioner for Oaths, a member of the Legislative Assembly, a legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Profession Act 2006, a person holding office under the Supreme Court Act 1979, the Justices of the Peace Act 1991, the Local Court Act 2015 or the Registration Act 1927, a member of the Police Force, a person licensed as a conveyancing agent or real estate agent under the Agents Licensing Act 1979, a Notary Public and any other person approved by the Registrar-General.

A witness to an instrument executed by an individual must first:

- take reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is the person entitled to sign the instrument;
- have the individual execute the document in the presence of the witness;
- not be a party to the instrument; and
- if witnessing more than one signature, clearly state that he/she has witnessed more than one signature. (ie I have witnessed the two signatures appearing above).

After signing, witnesses must legibly write, type or stamp their names and contact address or telephone number below their signature.

For a corporation, an instrument must be executed in a way permitted by law or sealed with the corporation's seal in accordance with the Law of Property Act 2000, Section 48.

For witnessing of instruments executed outside the Northern Territory refer to Schedule 1 of the Land Title Act 2000 and the Registrar-General's Direction.

PRIVACY STATEMENT – LAND REGISTER FORMS

The Registrar-General's Office is authorised by the Land Title Act 2000 to collect the information on this form for the establishment and maintenance of the Land Register, which is made available for search by any person, anywhere, including through the Internet, upon payment of a fee. The information is regularly provided to other NT Government agencies, the Australian Valuation Office, local governments, the Australian Bureau of Statistics, the Australian Taxation Office or other Commonwealth Agencies as required or authorised by law, and some private sector organisations for conveyancing, local government, valuation, statistical, administrative and other purposes.
