SCHEDULE OF NOTES

- 1. A registered easement in gross may be wholly or partly extinguished by registering an instrument of extinguishment of the easement in gross signed by only the person in whose favour the easement in gross is registered. (Internal use only: The PE code is used for extinguishment of an easement created by plan and the EE is for the extinguishment of an easement created by instrument).
2. This form is to be lodged as an original only and must be typed or completed in ink or biro. The imprint of the Commissioner of Territory Revenue must be shown. Alterations to information entered on the form should be crossed out (nor erased or obliterated by painting over) and initialled by the parties.
3. If there is insufficient space in any panel use the space above or an annexure sheet (Form 95).
4. A short description (ie. Sewerage Easement to Power and Water Corporation) will normally be sufficient. In certain circumstances like a partial extinguishment a survey plan may need to be annexed. If the easement was originally created by an instrument that LTO number should also be shown.
5. Volume and Folio of current title is essential together with complete parcel description. If the certificate as to title has been issued it must be produced.
6. Insert owner of the land burdened by the easement.
7. Name only (ie. Northern Territory of Australia).
8. The amount paid or the amount in dollars as valued. For the GST amount, if the easement is subject to the margin scheme and the GST amount is unknown insert "margin scheme" in the box provided.
9. Persons who may witness this document are a Commissioner for Oaths, a member of the Legislative Assembly, a legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Profession Act 2006, a person holding office under the Supreme Court Act 1979, the Justices of the Peace Act 1991, the Local Court Act 2015 or the Registration Act 1927, a Notary Public and any other person approved by the Registrar-General.

A witness to an instrument executed by an individual must first:

- take reasonable steps to ensure that the individual is the person entitled to sign the instrument;
• have the individual execute the document in the presence of the witness;
• not be a party to the instrument; and
• if witnessing more than one signature, clearly state that he/she has witnessed more than one signature. (ie I have witnessed the two signatures appearing above).

After signing, witnesses must legibly write, type or stamp their names and contact address or telephone number below their signature.

For a corporation, an instrument must be executed in a way permitted by law or sealed with the corporation's seal in accordance with the Law of Property Act 2000, Section 48.

For witnessing of instruments executed outside the Northern Territory refer to Schedule 1 of the Land Title Act 2000 and the Registrar-General's Direction.

PRIVACY STATEMENT – LAND REGISTER FORMS

The Registrar-General's Office is authorised by the Land Title Act 2000 to collect the information on this form for the establishment and maintenance of the Land Register, which is made available for search by any person, anywhere, including through the Internet, upon payment of a fee. The information is regularly provided to other NT Government agencies, the Australian Valuation Office, local governments, the Australian Bureau of Statistics, the Australian Taxation Office or other Commonwealth Agencies as required or authorised by law, and some private sector organisations for conveyancing, local government, valuation, statistical, administrative and other purposes. The NT Government also uses the information to prepare and sell or licence property sales reports to commercial organisations concerned with the development, sale or marketing of property.

Failure to provide the information in full or in part may prevent your application or transaction being completed.

Your personal information provided on this form can be subsequently accessed by you on request. If you have any queries please contact the Deputy Registrar-General on 8999 5318.
