A Three-Letter brand must be held before applying for a distinctive (symbol) brand

A person must hold a registered three-letter brand before applying for a distinctive (symbol) brand.

Number of distinctive (symbol) brands

The owner of a three-letter brand may hold up to three distinctive (symbol) brands.

Distinctive (symbol) brands

A Symbol brand must be unique to the Northern Territory.

If using letters as a symbol brand, then must be two letters with a symbol - over, under, vertical. Single letters are no longer accepted. A symbol Brand cannot be three equal sized letters or characters and cannot be a three character Brand registered in another State.

Size of distinctive (symbol) brands

A distinctive (symbol) brand shall not be less than 4cm high and wide or no more than 12cm high or wide. The imprint surface of the irons is to be no more than 4mm wide and no less than 3mm wide. Must be one handle.

It is recommended that any adjacent lines of a distinctive brand be at least 20mm apart to avoid blotching.

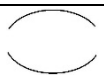

If, in the opinion of the Registrar or their delegate, a distinctive brand produced from your chosen design would not be clearly legible the distinctive brand will not be registered.

Please ensure you show and discuss your intended Distinctive (symbol) Brand with a Branding Iron maker BEFORE submitting this application to Regional Livestock Biosecurity Officer (RLBO) for approval.

Please note: once your Certificate of Registration is issued, your Branding Iron imprint MUST match, if it does not match your Certificate, a new Application fee will be charged in order to have the new symbol registered.

A full scale drawing of the required Distinctive (symbol) brand is required in the space provided below.

Additions and descriptions, when using letters then you must use two letters with a symbol (over, under, vertical):
