

Aerial spraying business licence

Application

Under the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals (Control of Use) Act 2004 spraying businesses that provide an aerial spraying service for fee or reward must be authorised under an Aerial Spraying Business Licence.

Licence expires on 30 June of the third year from date of issue.

The Department of Industry, Tourism and Trade (DITT) will issue a renewal notice prior to the licence expiry date.

There are no fees.

All businesses must have a business licence, including owner operators.

Business can only employ Aerial Spraying Applicators licensed under the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals (Control of Use) Act 2004.

Section A: Applicant details
Title:	Mr / Mrs / Ms / Other	Date of Birth:
Given name(s):		Family name:
Company name:
Position in company:		ABN or ACN:
Business phone no.:		Mobile no.:
Email address:
Business address:
Postal address (this is the address to which your certificate will be sent):
Does the company hold an equivalent licence issued interstate?			Yes / No
Has the company had its licence suspended, cancelled or been refused a licence in any State or Territory of Australia in the last five years?			Yes / No
UAV - make and model:		Maximum take-off weight (kg):
Signature:		Date:

Section B: Submission of application

All aircraft – whether conventional aeroplanes, helicopters or unmanned aerial vehicles operated from ground level – must be under the control of a licensed pilot operating in accordance with the Civil Aviation Act 1988 when spraying, spreading or dispersing agricultural chemicals.

Copies of the following must accompany your application:

- Evidence of an Air Operators Certificate endorsed to carry out agricultural operations.
- Current drivers licence or other official photographic ID.

In addition to the above if the applicant intends use an Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) copies of the following must accompany your application:

- Unmanned Aerial Operator Certificate (ReOC).
- Remote Pilot Licence (RePL).
- Details of proposed nozzle selections/configuration including manufactures specification details.

Completed forms can be forwarded to:

Email: chemicals@nt.gov.au

Mail: Chemical Services
Department of Industry, Tourism and Trade
GPO Box 3000
DARWIN NT 0801

Enquires

Tel: 08 8999 2344

Email: chemicals@nt.gov.au