Livestock Regulations as in force at 1 January 2015

Division 2 Brands cattle

21 Brand to be used on registered property

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- the person applies a registered brand to livestock; and
 - the livestock are on a property other than the registered property for the brand.

Fault elements:

The person:

- intentionally applies the brand; and
- is reckless in relation to whether the property is the registered property for the brand.

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units.

- Subregulation (1) does not apply if the registered owner of the brand has authorisation from the Registrar to use the brand on a property other than the registered property.
- An authorisation must specify the period during which the brand may be used on a property other than the registered property.
