

Professional ground spraying business licence

Application

Under the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals (Control of Use) Act 2004, spraying businesses that provide a ground spraying service for fee or reward must be authorised under a professional ground spraying business licence.

Licence expires 30 June of the third year from the date of issue.

The Department of Industry, Tourism and Trade (DITT) will issue a renewal notice prior to the licence expiry date.

There are no fees.

All businesses must have a business licence, including owner operators.

Business can only employ professional ground spraying applicators licensed under the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals (Control of Use) Act 2004 – see web page for further details.
