

Order form: transaction tags for buffalo

Under the NT Livestock Regulations holdings on which buffalo are kept it is required to be registered with a Property Identification Code (PIC). A certificate of registration of the PIC is provided to the owner

I (print name)
Of (postal address)
I am the owner / manager / authorised representative of the owner, of the Property listed below. I declare that:
The Property Identification Code is that identified on the Certificate of Registration of the holding; and							Yes / No
I have obtained the Land Owners permission to Order these Tags; and							Yes / No
I am aware that the devices ordered below can only be attached to animals kept or depastured on the holding described in this order.							Yes / No
Signature:					Date:
If on Aboriginal Land Trust (ALT):
Northern Land Council / Central Land Council hereby give their permission for this Order to be processed and have no objections to these tags being used on the above property and acknowledge everyone is aware of their legal obligations under the Livestock Act and Regulations
Signature					Mobile:
Position held at Land Council					Date:
NT PIC / Property details:
Property Identification Code (PIC):		T
Name of Property / Holding:
For confirmation of the Property Identification Code (PIC) go to http://pic.primaryindustry.nt.gov.au
Device type Please mark with an X the tags required:
Colour		Transaction tag type			Tag Manufacturer
White		X	Ear		X
Size		Small Female		Medium Female		Large Female
Number of Tags:		Other Text to be included:
Unique Serial Numbers (the first character maybe alpha or numeric):
Commencing
Ending
Email Address: (for delivery of number file)

Complete this form and present to a rural merchandise outlet to order your NLIS Tags.