Applying for an Aboriginal Coastal licence

Clause 183 (Part 11 Division 2) of the Fisheries Regulations provides the ability for a person to apply for an Aboriginal Coastal licence. These provisions are set out below.

Division 2 Aboriginal Coastal licence

183 Application for licence

An Aboriginal person may apply to the Director for an Aboriginal Coastal licence if:

- a) the person is a member of a community or group in respect of which land has been granted to a trust for the benefit of Aboriginals entitled by Aboriginal tradition to the use or occupation of that land under the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976(Cth); and
- b) the person is permanently resident on the land; and
- c) persons accepted by the majority of the community or group to be its leaders indicate their support for the application.

184 Director may grant licence

- (1) The Director may, subject to this Division, grant an Aboriginal Coastal licence to an applicant.
- (2) An Aboriginal Coastal licence must not be granted to a person other than an individual

185 No transfer of licence

An Aboriginal Coastal licensee shall not transfer his or her licence.

186 Lapse of licence

It shall be a condition of each Aboriginal Coastal licence that it lapses where the licensee ceases to be a permanent resident on the land granted for the benefit of the members of the community or group of which he or she is a member as referred to in regulation 183(a).

187 Certain people not to hold licence

An Aboriginal Coastal licensee shall not:

- (a) hold a commercial fishing licence; or
- (b) engage in fishing operations under the Aboriginal Coastal licence while being an assistant of the holder of a commercial fishing licence.

188 Area of licence

An Aboriginal Coastal licensee shall not take fish or aquatic life for sale under the licence except from within the area specified on the licence as the area in which fish may be taken under the licence.

189 Fishing gear

- (1) A person engaged in fishing operations under an Aboriginal Coastal licence must not use fishing gear other than the fishing gear allowed under this section.
- (2) The following fishing gear may be used under an Aboriginal Coastal licence:
 - (a) a vertical line;
 - (b) a troll line;
 - (c) a cast net;
 - (d) a scoop net;
 - (e) a net not exceeding 100 m in length and with a mesh size not exceeding 65 mm;
 - (f) a hand spear.
- (3) If authorised by the Aboriginal Coastal licence, the following fishing gear may also be used under the licence:
 - (a) a traditional fish trap;
 - (b) a gill net, not exceeding 200 m in length;
 - (c) a complying marine pot or dilly pot, not exceeding a total of 10 pots

191 To whom fish may be sold

An Aboriginal Coastal licensee must not sell fish or aquatic life except to:

- (a) an Aquarium Fishing/Display Fishery licensee; or
- (b) a Fish Trader/Processor licensee; or
- (c) a Fish Retailer licensee; or
- (d) a Fish Broker licensee; or
- (e) an Aquaculture licensee; or

- (f) an Aquarium Trader licensee; or
- (g) a Public Aquarium licensee; or
- (h) an Ornamental Aquaculture licensee; or
- (i) a person not purchasing the fish or aquatic life for resale.

191A Sale of fish

An Aboriginal Coastal licensee must not sell more than the number or quantity of the species of fish or aquatic life specified in the licence.

Note for regulation 191A

The licence may specify that the quantity of a particular species that may be sold is zero.
