Application For Immediate Financial Assistance

Who can claim immediate financial assistance?

If you are a victim of a violent act, witnessed a violent act or are a family member of a victim who died as a result of a violent act and are experiencing financial hardship, you may be eligible to apply for an immediate upfront payment of financial assistance. The maximum amount payable in immediate assistance is $5000.

Family members of a primary victim who has died can also claim funeral expenses

What can I claim immediate financial assistance for?

Immediate financial assistance includes:

- financial assistance for out of pocket expenses that have been paid or will need to be paid for medical treatment of any injuries received;
- in exceptional circumstances, expenses relating to the relocation or securing of your home or business;
- If the violent act resulted in the death of the primary victim:
 - any funeral expenses or medical expenses of the primary victim incurred by you
 - financial support if you were financially dependant on the primary victim

Financial hardship

For the purposes of this application, financial hardship will generally be assessed on your gross income in the 8 weeks prior to the violent act. You will be considered to be experiencing financial hardship if your gross income is less than:

INCOME	per week	8 weekly
Single no children	$420.00	$3360.00
Single or couple, combined one child	$734.00	$5872.00
Partnered (combined) no children	$700.00	$5600.00
For each child	$34.00	$272.00

If your income is more than the limits provided above and you feel that you are experiencing financial hardship, you may still be eligible for immediate assistance. You will be required to set out the circumstances of hardship and provide relevant documents with your application.

Income includes wages and self-employment income, Centrelink payments (including pensions or benefits) as well as income from other sources, such as rental properties and/or trusts and investments.

How will my application be processed?

When we receive your application form, we will register your claim and send you a letter of acknowledgement.

Copies of police reports and medical records will be required to support your claim. In some cases, it may also be necessary to obtain detailed medical reports. If you have these documents, you should provide them with your application. If you do not provide them, the CVSU will need your permission to get this information.

Receipts and copies of accounts and documents, such as pay slips, will be required if you are claiming out-of-pocket expenses or loss of earnings.

Once all the necessary information has been obtained, we will assess your claim. We will advise you of the result of the assessment and the amount of payment to which you are entitled, if any.

Will the offender have to pay?

If you receive an award of financial assistance, we may take legal action to recover the money from the offender. You do not have to give evidence or be involved in these proceedings.

Privacy and confidentiality

The information provided in this application form will not be disclosed except with your consent, or where required or authorised by law. The CVSU is authorised to disclose some information to the offender if legal action is taken to recover money from the offender. We may also be required to produce documents to a court where there is other legal action taking place.

Lodging your application

You can lodge your application with the CVSU in Darwin, or at the Magistrates' Court in regional centres (outside Darwin).

DO NOT use this form if:

- the injury was caused by a motor vehicle accident and the primary victim (or primary victim's next of kin) is entitled to payment under the Motor Accidents (Compensation) Act;
- the injury is employment related, unless the employer is disputing the claim for workers' compensation; or
- you are only claiming medical expenses, and you are entitled to payment for the injuries, expenses and loss from another source (for example your medical expenses are covered by private health insurance)

If you receive financial assistance under this application, and then receive money from another source as a result of the violent act or injury, you may be required to refund all or part of your financial assistance payment.
